Customer Reviews

Factually inaccurate, scatterbrained style, poor grammar, and spelling mistakes. And that's just the first paragraph. There is very little content here. Better information can be found for free on the internet. You will actually be less well informed about Wicca after reading this.

Easy to follow, very nice for newbies trying to learn. I would recommend this if your curios, new to it all....

Simple, practical advice condensed into its most-important parts. The books are apparently self-published, as the spelling needs some work. Some paragraphs are also contradictory on a particular topic, such as (paraphrased), "...do this at dusk, just before the sun rises." But the three-pack of books contains valuable information. A normal reader can find one's way around the errors to understand the intent.

Simple it's a very good book but not for a witch who is advanced only for a beginner but it's an excellent resource if you are trying to begin it has all the basics that you are needing to require to become an advanced witch

It had some good information, but as a practicing wiccan. It also left out a lot. Spells aren't child play everyone and these downplayed that as well. Definitely not my first recommendation for new wiccans

It was easy to understand. Lots of spells to learn for a beginners. I would remained it to others. â°

Found all the information very interesting. Books were written with easy to understand information. I would highly recommend these for anyone new to the Wicca way of life.

Very easy instructions, informative, and powerful. It is just what a beginner needs, the why, the how and when and where ^,
