ICE (Dr. Leah Andrews And Jack Hobson Thrillers Book 1)

Synopsis

We are writing with some fabulous news! ICE has been named the Winner in the ACTION/ADVENTURE category of the 2016 Next Generation Indie Book Awards. Congratulations!" Next Generation Indie Book Awards Edition! 6/16 Edits, Additions, TWO CHAPTERS OF ICE GENESIS, THE NEXT IN THE LEAH AND JACK SERIES! Archaeologist Leah Andrews stumbles upon something inexplicable in southwestern New Mexico: inside a dark cavern lies an undiscovered, Native American cliff dwelling abandoned for 800 years. While twisting through one of the narrow underground passageways, Leah's flashlight illuminates the remains of a violent massacre. Ancient human remains "all slaughtered in a long-ago massacre" cover the cavern floor, along with a number of brilliantly colored, granite crystals. The rare crystals are native to only one place on earth: a frozen mountain range in central Antarctica. Could Native Americans have traveled to the frozen continent of Antarctica 800 years prior to the first known human exploration? If so how? And why? There's only one person who can get Leah to those mountains in Antarctica: her estranged husband and climbing guide Jack Hobson. At their destination they make a stunning discovery that will change history and science forever. But Leah's team is far from the only interested party. As her secret makes its way to the highest levels of government, a race to seize the Russian-claimed Antarctic territory brings the world to the brink of nuclear conflict.

Customer Reviews

I hope I might be forgiven for offering this necessarily biased review for ICE by Kevin Tinto. Kevin hired me to serve as a very early reader and editor for his ms. Ultimately, he also asked for permission to put my words of praise on the cover -- my first blurb ever. It made me a little sheepish, but now that I've done it, I might as well fill in the blanks of that praise here. Like I said, I may be biased, but I am a huge Kevin Tinto fan. For those wondering whether to buy ICE, think about some of your favorite thrillers, and consider whether they contained the following elements:- an expedition into uncharted realms- survival sequences in the most extreme outdoor conditions- a testy relationship and authentic friction between a man and woman who really love one another but find it hard to get along with each other- a seeming scientific impossibility that is not only a mystery/enigma, but also a driving obsession for the protagonist- a conflict between superpowers that threatens to go nuclear- a character who makes the ultimate sacrifice to complete his or her mission- a longstanding, real-life mystery that is solved over the course of the story- a mind-blowing "what-if" premise built around historical first-contact between extra-planetary visitors and primitive people- Navy SEALs (enough said?) If your favorite thrillers have included such elements, then ICE is clearly worth trying! If you haven't read the like before, then ICE is guaranteed to surprise you -- fresh versus derivative. I grew up reading everything from action/adventure to Cold War spy novels. Sit me down with one of Alastair MacLean's books and I was in heaven.
