This is Sonnet's story. Sonnet is a human that hunts Vampires. While out with her partner staking one of the undead, she meets another Vampire. This one seems different though, he has intrigued her. While she is distracted by him, her partner makes a mistake and ends up shooting the one they were killing. Having to flee quickly, she doesn't notice that this new vampire, Bane, placed something in her trunk. Once she gets back to the Warehouse, the Company's most vicious hit man (Ryker) smells something funny coming from her trunk. This leads to a terrible discovery. Bane hid the corpse of the vampire they were after in there. Ryker shows Sonnet how to dispose of the body using holy water. While he is doing that, Bane shows up again. Again, no one around sees him but Sonnet. He has decided that he wants to get to know Sonnet better. Before Ryker can get back up to the front of the car though, Bane has disappeared. While working a new case, Sonnet uses her supernatural abilities and seeks out Bane. She needs help to find a vampire that killed a woman and kidnapped her child. The child's father has hired her, but he has nothing but a sketch to go on. Sonnet takes the sketch and hunts down Bane, asking for assistance. He agrees to help, but there is a condition. Once Sonnet agrees to the condition, they are off. Bane takes her somewhere she has never heard of and has her mind blown. She has known about Vampires her whole life, but now she learns that there are other supernatural creatures as well. She comes to find out that some of the people closest to her are not what they seem. How does Sonnet handle all this new knowledge? Want to know about all the other supernatural creatures? Love vampire stories? Want to know what happens next? Then read this today.
