Customer Reviews

Just a damned fine read. Spoiler alert. This one starts with Dan waking up after being unconscious for two days. He had gone to the hospital with Steve and Ash to rescue Lexie. They had no problem finding her but were attacked by the batst crazy guy who over powered her. The guy cut Steve in the arm and knocked him out. He then attacked Dan. Using Lexi's knife he scored a hit on the left side of Dan's head and face. Blinded by blood Dan used his gun and fired. He kept firing though he couldn't see who he was shooting at. Ash, an Ash Dan told to stay, save his ass when he attacked and chewed the st out of the crazy. Dan dragged the other two out but couldn't find Ash. He's heartbroken, thinking Ash is dead. Of course Ash is there as well. Wounded by the same knife the crazy used on Dan and Steve. The others found him at a window trying to get at the crazy. A crazy who used the window to escape. A crazy who will die where it all started. Once Dan is able to move he has a talk with Penny. A Penny who didn't want anyone to go after he and Steve. Seems Penny has lost sight site of the fact that she's the coordinator for home base, not the ruler of home base. Penny is pissed at Dan but after thinking about it she realizes how right he is. She vows to change her ways. Leah is doing great as a Ranger. She's one very capable young girl and at thirteen that's just what she is. A young girl. A young girl who has no problem killing in defense of home base. A Leah who never thinks of it as murder. Its protecting those at home base. Leah views Dan as her Father and has nothing but respect for the man and what he does and how he does it.
