Customer Reviews

Once again top-notch cozy mystery author Patti Benning shows readers why she is one of today's BEST writers in her beloved genre. CREAMY SEROLE MURDER, the latest installment in her phenomenal DARLING DELI series is a nteed to thrill, delight, and entertain readers from beginning to end. Chock fullof all the qualities that make Ms. Benning's books simply irresistible (and impossible to put down)---perfect pacing throughout (not at all overwhelmingly too fast or too slow but rather "just right"), interesting and colorful characters old and new, gripping plotlines and a great setting---this highly anticipated new novel in this popular and well-crafted series is Patti Benning at her undeniable BEST. The only thing predictable about this awesome and wonderful read are its excellence and Ms. Benning's reliability to deliver a top-quality cozy mystery novel that will keep readers turning pages until the very last word...it's THAT GOOD. With its primary plotline revolving around the suspected murder of one of the elderly residents at the local assisted living home and Moira's friend Regie caught in the middle of it all, CREAMY CASSEROLE MURDER will keep readers guessing as to what actually happened right up until the end of the novel. With a subplot revolving around unusual behaviors from Moira's beloved gentleman friend David and other friends, there is plenty of interesting and twisty storylines to keep readers engrossed throughout this very gripping novel. And all the usual "regulars" readers expect are among the cast of characters, including Moira herself (of course), her daughter, best friends Denise and Martha, etc. are all present and accounted for, along with some very welcome new faces specific to this particular novel.
