Justice Deferred

Synopsis

New York. 1988. A gang of 'youths" attack an old man in a park. It's the 80s version of 'The Knockout Game". Bob O'Malley, their victim, clings to life. It looks like they'll get away without punishment. Except, one man stands in their way. Is this your kind of story? Customer Reviews

This story started out to be interesting. The ending was fairly predictable somewhere just past the middle, where I lost interest. I think this story has a good plot, however, it's way too short to be more than an ordinary story that really has no twist to it.

ok

I was really disappointed when the book ended. It was way too short. It started well but had no substance after the first few pages. That let me down.
