Me And Jesus: God Spoke To Me

Synopsis

Water, not blood, flows through their veins. This is the story of the strong bond between Mother and Daughter and is based upon the life experiences of the author. The death of the Family Matriarch opens many wounds, some to be discovered only after her demise, and pits love and devotion against greed and envy, with a denouement that confirms what the true meaning of love and friendship really is. In a time of sickness and tragedy, family should stick together, but in this particular instance, this family divided, as if they had water in their veins instead of blood. Why? Because of Greed.
