Deadly (Born Bratva Book 5)

Synopsis

Roksana: From the first time I laid eyes on him I knew my life would be forever changed. It wasn't just his sadistic nature that pulled me in. Looking into his eyes was like coming home. It was the first time I realized he was the man who could not only relate to my psychopathic need for blood; he would be the one who shared in the bloodshed I crave. Alone I am a force to be reckoned with. With him I'm unstoppable. Oleg: She is the coldest woman I've ever met. I never imagined there would be someone I could work side by side with but the first time I saw her I knew she would be my partner. She's as ruthless as I am, a force to be reckoned with, and together...we are unstoppable. This is our story.

Customer Reviews

I am a big fan. I have read majority of authors books. I have followed her books but not reviewed many. However, I had to post a review on this one to voice the disappointment on a romance I was so looking forward to reading. If you have read 'The Club', 'Novak', 'Glavok', 'Expose' and even 'Rubia' I felt I got the full story of the romance between the characters from start to finish, with all drama added into it. However, I noticed on "Cleaner" some parts to romance were glossed over with the main characters going back in a memory of their time together or just mentioning it in passing. I accepted that in 'Cleaners' because their romance was over decades long and started at young age. However, I could not take it in this romance. Oleg and Roksana were teased as some dark, sexy, simmering chemistry that would combust once they finally get together. I read their great chemistry in 'Expose' and the 'Cleaner'. I was so looking forward to this great sexual chemistry. I followed it devoutly in each book series. I mean in "Cleaners" the scene when Glavok tells Oleg that Roksana is finally his was awesome. I was so excited to see their book finally out. And what do I read of their first time together? A glossed over memory from Oleg.

A-damn-glossed-over-memory-from-Oleg:(I mean why? Why couldn't we get the full extended beginning of this couple from chapter one!!! The last book left it off at great point!!! I don't see why it could not have picked up from there. Instead it was just memory in Oleg's mind of that first time and it was so mild in heat at best. I was not expecting this from all the teasing. I just can't wrap my mind around it. Don't get me wrong I enjoy the series, that is why I gave book a 3.
