Customer Reviews

This deck is absolutely gorgeous. The artwork bleeds to the edges of the cardstock which is a glossy finish. The thickness of the cards isn't too thick but not too thin that it is flimsy. The cards are on the bigger side so it does make it a bit difficult to shuffle, but not too bad if you are used to the bigger cards. Open opening this deck, you could feel the energy of Ganesha just overwhelm you with peace and serenity, which is respectively what Ganesha is all about. That and removing obstacles of course. The book is on the smaller side but the messages of the cards is precise and to the point. The book also includes a basic background of Ganesha as well as a few spreads, one of which is Ganesh's horseshoe, which I am not sure exactly how a horseshoe relates to Ganesha but I am still eager to test this out. Overall this deck will be enjoyable for years to come and I cannot wait to begin getting to know the cards and Ganesha better. Please see the photos attached for further analysis.

These cards are accurate with my day to day feelings and thoughts. They know how to give me the exact pep talk I need in order to comfort me. I love them! I use the card delight for my bedside table. It makes my heart happy!!

I have lots of oracle decks, but this is the best one yet. The sheer beauty of it is absolutely breathtaking, and the cards work incredibly well. Not to mention that they exude a peacefulness I have never really experienced from other decks. I highly recommend it!

I love this deck and booklet. The cards are larger than the traditional tarot card and the artwork on them by Ekaterina Golovanova is absolutely breathtaking. My only complaint is that when shuffling the deck, the cards tend to stick together. The booklet is also well written and very helpful in conveying the meanings behind the cards. This is a deck you won't regret buying.

I am so in love with this deck. It has 50 cards and a good size guide book. I don't work with him nor deities from his pathon so I don't fully understand all the meanings just by image alone but I am starting to understand the more I use the deck.

This is a very pretty deck. The cards alone are worth it for their meditative value. The book's card meanings are pretty basic and common for this sort of deck. The quality is above average and should last a long time. Not a very deep and meaningful deck on its own but its simplicity is the charm.

I bought these after listening to Steven Binko's review. You should listen to the review, too, if you are considering this deck. I could not have written a better review. These cards are beautiful. Angela Hartfield did a superb job.

This is one of my first oracle card purchases and I am beyond pleased! Although I have yet to use the cards more than a time or two, it is already my favorite. The colors are vibrant and the artwork is absolutely stunning! Item was delivered on-time.. Highly recommend!
