Some books about pilgrimage are guidebooks to the travel aspect, and most are focused on the spiritual and transformative aspects. In Waymarkers, Mary DeJong has written a wise workbook that encourages interaction before, during and after your journey to Iona, sprinkled with poetry, wise quotes, prayers and other helpful references - alongside just enough travel information to help you on the journey but not so much that you will not feel the wonder and surprise of your new experience. This wee book will be in my bag as I'm preparing for my next Iona pilgrimage, as well as with me when I leave and close at hand when I return home..

I had the privilege of going to Iona with Mary and the Waymarkers guidebook. It not only encouraged me to prepare for the special journey I was about to embark on, but it also helped me to reflect on the memorable places I have already traveled. Wherever you are on your own journey, Waymarkers is an excellent resource for any modern pilgrim who desires to connect with the goodness of God in creation.

I have just returned from an amazing pilgrimage to the beautiful holy island of Iona, Scotland. Prior to my pilgrimage I had purchased this Waymarkers book to read and prepare my heart for the experience. It was such a great resource as I travelled by myself to this holy, thin place. Mary was able to capture many feelings that are sometimes hard to express. It was a wonderful guide to all of the emotions that I experienced both before, during and now after. It was truly a gift to have with me and to be able to use it in my daily reflections on each step of the journey. Thank you Mary for a perfect "Vade Mecum" (go with me)!
